

Constitution Day and Citizenship Day	E.5
Adopted: July 23, 2013

Constitution Day and Citizenship Day shall, in accordance with federal law, be held each year on September 17. The purpose of Constitution Day and Citizenship Day is to commemorate the formation and signing on September 17, 1787, of the United States Constitution and recognize all who, by coming of age or by naturalization, have become citizens. The manner in which the day shall be commemorated shall be within the superintendent's discretion.
