CRC Staff Spotlight –Dakota Thompson

Siyo! My name is Dakota! I'm the new College Resource Specialist with the College Resource Center at Cherokee Nation. I am a certified school counselor and before I started at Cherokee Nation, I was a high school counselor at schools in our Reservation for almost eight years. I am a Gates Millennium Scholar and I have a Bachelor of Arts & Masters of Education degree, both from NSU in Tahlequah, Okla.

I enjoy serving Cherokee students through experiential learning – I've led a few educational study abroad trips. Definitely study abroad in college if given the chance! In my spare time, I love coaching my son's soccer team and the occasional Netflix binge. If I can help you with resources, please reach out. Happy to serve!
